Good afternoon Kenya,

I am writing to you to follow up regarding contact that I made with Bridgette DeHarte week before last. As you may know, we are registered as foreign agents under the Foreign Agents Registration Act on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative's Office (TECRO) who we represent here in the United States.

Taiwan is going to be celebrating the Republic's 100th Anniversary with, among other things, a Centennial National Day reception which is being hosted by Ambassador Jason Yuan at the Twin Oaks Estate on Wednesday, October 5th at 5:00pm. We would like to extend an invitation to Congresswoman Clarke on behalf of TECRO and would be grateful if she would consider attending this event.

In addition, we would like the Congresswoman to consider entering a statement into the Congressional Record commemorating Taiwan's 100th Anniversary.

I previously supplied a copy of the invitation to Bridgette DeHart in your office.

Should you have any questions concerning this request, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Again, we are appreciative of the Congresswoman's consideration.

Best regards,

Chris

Dear Caitlin,

Thanks very much for your e-mail. It'd be great if that statement could go into the Record before October 5th, so that it can be referenced at Wednesday's reception. But if not, anytime before October 10th is also more than fine. As Elyse O'Brien may have told, Park Strategies, LLC, Park Strategies Managing Director Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato, and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (TECRO) in the United States.

Thanks so much again.

Hi Sean-

Thank you for inviting Congresswoman Nan Hayworth to celebrate the Centennial National Day of the Republic of China (Taiwan), unfortunately, logistically the Congresswoman would be unable to make it. She has two prior commitments on the hill that evening. Our legislative team is in the process of providing you with an insert. Please, let me know if I can be of more assistance.

Have a great weekend!

Best,

Caitlin

Elyse,

As it turns out, it'd be GREAT if Rep. Hayworth could insert a statement into the Record BEFORE Wednesday, Oct. 5, so that it can be acknowledged at the reception. But if not, before 10/10's still fine.

Speaking of the reception, any word yet on whether Rep. Hayworth can join Sen. D'Amato there that night?

Unless I've been advised in error, we can't because anything we enter, say, tomorrow, does not appear in the Record until the next time the House is in session. The next time we're in session is the 11th. This has been my understanding for the 7 years we've been here, but if I'm wrong I'd be happy to have it submitted sooner.

We're going to do something for the Congressional Record on this. We'll do it on or about the anniversary date -- likely the 11th, since we're not in session on the 10th. I'll send you a copy of what we plan to enter once we're all set with it, ok?

Mike,

First of all, congrats on the new job. I was just thinking of the time that you got dressed in that Oktoberfest outfit for an NRSC event in 1995☺.

Anyway, as per above, I must tell you that Park Strategies, LLC, Park Strategies Managing Director Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato, and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (TECRO) in the United States.

And in that regard, Senator D'Amato, Kraig Siracuse and I will attend the Centennial celebration for the Republic of China (Taiwan's legal name) this Wednesday, October 5th at 5-8pm (please see attachments for details). Senator D'Amato would be thrilled if you and/or Mr. Turner could join us that night. Let us know if you can make it. If not, we'll catch you some other time.

Thanks, Mike. And, congrats again.

Hey Sean, I don't know that we've actually figured that out yet but we'll find a way to get him in and out. Likely we won't need a parking spot, but I'm familiar with that area and you're right, unless you get down to Mass. or Wisconsin there's no getting a cab!

Taiwan, Idaho sign multimillion dollar wheat deal

- Idaho Statesman

The Taiwan Flour Mills Association signed an agreement with the Idaho Wheat Association in the governor's ceremonial office Friday to import up to 62.5 million bushels of U.S. wheat through 2012 and 2013. The deal is worth about $484 million, according to a state press release.

The Taiwan association imports wheat on behalf of 26 Taiwanese flour mills. It has purchased about 450 million bushels of U.S. wheat worth more than $2.5 billion since 1998.

Dear Peter,

Hi, how are you?

As you know, Park Strategies, LLC, Park Strategies Managing Director Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato, and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (TECRO) in the United States.

A Taiwan wheat-buying delegation will visit Idaho, along with a few other states, in late September. As per the attached invitation which Senator Fischer has presumably already received, there will be an LOI signing ceremony for said purchases on Tuesday, September 20th from 2:30-5pm in Room SVC 208 of the U.S. Capitol Visitor Center. FYI, the actual signing's between 3:30-4:30pm.

Considering Senator Crapo's a strong Taiwan supporter and not long ago met with Taiwan Special Representative Ambassador Jason Yuan, please know how much it would mean to Ambassador Yuan and Senator D'Amato if Senator Crapo could stop by the siging. It's good for Idaho exports and it's good for Taiwan.

Please let me know what, if any, further information you might need.

Taiwanese Ag Trade Delegation to Purchase WI Corn, Soybeans

Wisconsin Ag Connection - 09/30/2011

<http://www.wisconsinagconnection.com/story-state.php?Id=1177&yr=2011>

 Members of the Taiwan Agricultural Trade Goodwill Mission have agreed to purchase billions of dollars worth of crops from six U.S. states over the next two years, including Wisconsin. On Thursday, the group signed letters of intent in Madison during a meeting with Governor Scott Walker and other dignitaries. The deal calls for the country to buy between $4.1 billion and $5.12 billion of locally-grown corn and soybeans from Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Ohio and Virginia.

The group said in its pledge that it needs between 103 million and 110 million bushels of soybeans in 2012-13, with the value expected to range from $1.61 billion to $1.73 billion. They also intend to purchase 303 million to 413 million bushels of corn over that period, plus up to 750,000 bushels of corn by-products. That deal could be worth an estimated $2.5 billion to $3.4 billion.

"Trade agreements like this between Taiwan and Wisconsin are an important part of what both countries must do to remain competitive in our global economy," Governor Walker said. "Taiwan was Wisconsin's largest export market for corn and fourth largest export market for soybeans last year. It is important to maintain strong relations with our sister state of Taiwan, and I thank members of the delegation for their visit to our great state."

The purpose of the Taiwanese delegation's visit is to strengthen import and export relations between Taiwan and the United States.

The Governor's Office says this is the first ever stop in Wisconsin for the Taiwan Agricultural Trade Goodwill Mission.

Most of Wisconsin's shipments for corn and soybeans will be used to feed Taiwan's dairy cattle.

Eyes on Taiwan trade

by Bob Hague on September 29, 2011

<http://www.wrn.com/2011/09/eyes-on-taiwan-trade/>

Wisconsin is increasing its agricultural trade with Taiwan. That growing trade in two key agricultural commodities — corn and soybeans — was cemented by the goodwill visit of a Taiwanese trade delegation to Madison. Governor Scott Walker noted the trade through Wisconsin's Great Lakes ports has been beneficial for both partners. "Taiwan is our number one export partner in corn, our number four export partner in soybeans," said Walker. "We'd like to see that grow, and we've seen significant growth between 2009 and 2010."

In fact, the head of the Taiwanese delegation, Doctor Bo-Ji Chen, said Taiwan increased imports of agriculture products from Wisconsin by more than forty percent last year — and noted there's not a lot of land for agriculture in the island nation. "We have the second highest population density in the world, so we have not much land to grow corn and soybeans," he said. "We have to get our feed sources through reliable partners."

One of the Wisconsin agriculture firms to benefit from the Taiwan trade is the DeLong Company of Clinton. Bo DeLong said it's been a story of quantity — and quality. "It depends on the crop year obviously, but the Taiwanese have been very happy with the products that we've given them out of Wisconsin," DeLong said. "We've had very few complaints, and they've continued to come back and buy our products."

Most of the Wisconsin commodities go to livestock feed, including to Taiwan's dairy industry — although Chen said Wisconsin cheesemakers have nothing to worry about on that front.
